

DUART CASTLE (Caisteal Dhubhard), Clan MacLean, Isle of Mull

Caisteal Dhubhard: “the castle of the black height” in Gaelic.

Interpretation: This castle (land site) intercepts the Lindisfarne ley through Edinburgh and interfaces via the “Black Height” (ie the Selah field) in the action line to the IONA (Christos Gate) and STAFFA (Lucifer Gate) islands. This ley or “Spear of Longinus” introduces a strong redemptive action in the Tavhara Line from Thurso to San Sebastian, Spain.

The “gates” refer to the two basic Star Gates generating the Continuum. The Tavhara Line is the UK’s strong Grail baseline between Edinburgh and Glastonbury.

File: GridDuartSpearLey01.cdr/pdf

From a photo by David Howitt; Staffa Press; printed in GB by J. Arthur Dixon.

Text copyright © by William Buehler, 2002